

How to add watermark or logo picture to your video

Watermark can be used to protect your video copyright and the watermark video generator software. (Free Download it Now) When you publish or share your video on the internet, you can not know who copy, re-distribute and share your video without a logo picture or text watermark. To protect your video files well, you should need add logo picture or text watermark to your video files by the help of the watermark video generator software. After you add the logo picture or text watermark to your video with a watermark video generator software, you can protect your video copyright on the internet easily. Do you know how to make your video with a logo picture watermark or text watermark? DVD Photo Slideshow is a professional watermark video generator software that can be used to add logo watermark picture or text watermark to your video files to protect your video copyright easily. When you create video with your photo collection, you can add a logo watermark picture or text watermark to the end of your video with this watermark video generator software. (Also Review a 3D SWF Flash Movie Maker)

This is a tutorial to show you how to add logo picture watermark or text watermark to video files (MP4, MKV, MOV, 3GP, AVI, MPEG-1, MPEG-2, H.264, HD video, FLV, SWF, etc ) with this watermark video generator software.

To add your logo picture watermark or text watermark to your video, you should have to need a watermark video generator software. (powerful photo to video converter allows you to add logo picture watermark or text watermark to all kinds of video files)

Download the powerful watermark video generator software to install on your computer at first, then you can begin to run the watermark video generator software easily to add your logo watermark picture or text watermark to the video files.

There are some simple steps for you to add logo image watermark or text watermark to your video with this help of watermark video generator software.

- 1. Add photos (including logo watermark picture) to the watermark video generator software. The powerful watermark video generator software allows you to import the photos for photo to video conversion.
- 2. Arrange the logo picture watermark order. After you add the photos to the watermark video generator software, then you can begin to arrange the logo watermark photo order. You can drag the logo watermark photo to the end of the album so that the logo watermark photo can be showed at the end of the video.

- 3. Add the text watermark to video picture by the help of the photo editing function of watermark video generator software. The watermark video generator software also allows you to add the text watermark to the video. Double click the picture that you want to add text watermark. Then there will pop up a "Photo Configuration" window, then you can click "Add Text" button to add and edit your text watermark on the picture. You can choose your favorite text color or font for the text watermark. After you add the text watermark on the photo, you can preview the watermark effect.
- 4. Publish the video with the logo watermark or text watermark. Click "Burn disc" to the publish window of the watermark video generator software to choose the video output format (MP4, MKV, MOV, 3GP, AVI, MPEG-1, MPEG-2, H.264, HD video, FLV, SWF, etc). After your setting is ready, click "Create Now!" button to start the watermark video conversion with the logo or text

After your watermark ( logo picture or text ) video conversion is complete, you can preview it on your PC at first. You will see that you watermark video has the logo watermark or text watermark. And then start to upload it to the video website for sharing with others on the internet. When your video is played in the internet, it will show the logo picture or text watermark effect to others. You will not worry about that others will approach your video any more, because you have created a watermark video with the logo or text watermark by using the watermark video generator software.

After the logo picture or text watermark have been added to your video with this watermark video generator software, they can not be removed again. The logo photo or text watermark has become a part of the video itself and the watermark effect will protect your video file well when you share your video on the internet.

Note: If you want to use your company or website logo as the watermark to brand your video, please include your company or website domain name in your watermark image. And the logo will be showed as the picture format, but the website domain name will be showed as the text format.

